

Fisheries Technology Certificate (1-Year Program)

While fulfilling the requirements of the Fisheries Technology Certificate, students learn the practical skills and knowledge needed to enter careers in fisheries technology. The Fisheries Technology certificate can have either a fish culture or fisheries management emphasis. All the classes required for the Certificate also apply to the AAS in Fisheries Technology, allowing students to easily continue on in their Fisheries studies.

Certificate of Fisheries Technology with a Fish Culture Emphasis

General Requirements

11 credits

ENGL 111, ENGL 212, COMM S111 or COMM S235	3
MATH 105, MATH 107 or STAT 107	4
ENVS 101, BIOL 103, 104, 105, 106 or CHEM 103	4

Major Requirements

21 credits

FT 120 Fisheries of Southeast Alaska	3
OCN 101 Introduction to Oceanography or
FT 270 Introduction to Limnology	3
FT 122 Fin fish Culture I	3
FT 222 Fin fish Culture II	3
MT 120 Skiff Operator or MT 119 Outboard Motor Maintenance	1
CIOB 135A Spreadsheets or CIOB 140 Databases	1
FT 273 Fundamentals of Fisheries Biology	4
FT 291 Internship	3

Certificate of Fisheries Technology with Fisheries Management Emphasis

General Requirements

11 credits

ENGL 111, ENGL 212, COMM S111 or COMM S235	3
MATH 105, MATH 107 or STAT 107	4
BIOL 103, 104, 105 or 106	4

Major Requirements

21 credits

FT 120 Fisheries of Southeast Alaska	3
OCN 101 Introduction to Oceanography or
FT 270 Introduction to Limnology	3
FT 273 Fundamentals of Fisheries Biology	4
FT 210 Field Methods/Safety in Fisheries Technology	4
FT 272, Fisheries Management, Law, Economics	3
CIOB 135A Spreadsheet Concepts and Applications I	1
FT 291 Internship	3

The University of Alaska Southeast Ketchikan Fisheries Technology Program students may qualify for financial aid if they meet the federal eligibility standards.

Contact the Student Services Coordinator at 228-4508 for more information on financial aid or visit our website at:

<http://www.ketch.alaska.edu/studentservices/financial-resources/index.html>.